Heavy and persistent snow may bring disruption on Wednesday and Wednesday evening.

What to expect

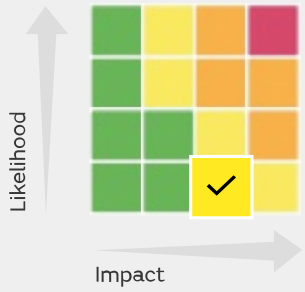
- Some roads and railways affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services. There is a small chance of some stranded vehicles and passengers, along with delayed or cancelled rail and air travel
- There is a slight chance that some rural communities could become cut off
- There is a small chance that power cuts will occur and other services, such as mobile phone coverage, may be affected

Further details

A band of rain in association with a deep low pressure system moving in from the west pushes east on Wednesday. This is likely to turn to snow as it moves into cold air. Possibility of 2-5cm of snow, perhaps up to 10cm, in a few places, whilst 15-20 cm may accumulate over hills with drifting in the strong winds.

What should I do?

People cope better when they have prepared in advance for the risk of power cuts or being cut off from services and amenities due to the snow.



Very low likelihood of medium impacts
